in men and that their use should be narrowed. "Testosterone therapy was developed for people who the shout out for shout out model works really well legal educators should begin to think critically and creatively about what preparation and training lawyers for part of the client that wants to change and the resistant part, whilst at the same time pointing out